

GL EVENTS REMAINS MOBILISED

Dear friends, customers and partners,

All French citizens and companies are facing a major and unprecedented global health crisis. The GL events Group has been particularly affected and is taking - and will continue to take - all the measures required to deal with the continually changing situation linked to the spread of the Coronavirus - Covid19, in line with the recommendations and advice of the competent health and governmental authorities.

We are currently ensuring the continuity of our business and actively preparing for the end of the crisis, both in France and abroad. All our teams remain at your disposal and will continue to provide all their support to help you get through this difficult period and mitigate the impacts.

Ensuring the continuity of our business involves adapting our working methods in order to protect our employees' health and guarantee the quality and continuity of our services in a safe manner. Consequently, until further notice, all the employees ensuring the continuity of our services are working remotely. We have all the requisite communication technology and collaborative tools to enable everyone to work efficiently from home. In the event operations need to be carried out on an event site, we will do everything possible to ensure the health and safety of our employees, customers and service providers in order to deliver the level of quality expected.

All the Group's employees, and particularly your usual sales contacts, supported by the General Management, are at your service to answer any questions and to deal with your specific requests. Rest assured that we remain actively mobilised and totally engaged during this complex global crisis.
