

COMMUNICATION – CORONAVIRUS - COVID-19

For a few weeks, the GL events Group has been carefully following the global evolution regarding Coronavirus - COVID-19.

Bringing people together is our core business. Therefore, we care and we always will show benevolence and complete thoughtfulness towards our employees, customers, suppliers and partners in a tense and international context.

Our main concern remains the wellbeing of our staff, exhibitors and visitors, and of all partners in order to ensure business continuity and customer satisfaction.

Based on the recommendations and advice provided by the relevant health and government authorities, in France and in all countries where the GL events Group operates, the following preventive measures have been taken:

- Dedicated resources to manage issues related to the epidemic risk
- Follow up regarding French and local health authorities' guidelines, along with the World Health Organization (WHO) ones
- Sanitary facilities at disposal and discretion on events held by the Group's entities, subject to changes depending on supply delays

All Group employees, and more particularly your key contact, with the support of the Board, remain at your service and are at your disposal to respond to any of your query and specific matter.

All companies and activities of the GL events Group would particularly like to thank you for your trust placed in your events activities and will do everything in their power to ensure their commitments.

We keep a close eye and we follow regularly guidelines provided by local and national health and professional authorities. We also invite you to do so:
