

New Date Notice of China (Beijing) International Building Decorations & Materials Exhibition (B&D 2020)

Owing to the epidemic of novel coronavirus (COVID-19), the 30th China (Beijing) International Building Decorations & Materials Exhibition (B&D 2020) announced its postponement on January 28, 2020. After active coordination and communications, hereinafter, we are pleased to announce the new date of the exhibition is June 16-19, 2020, the location is China International Exhibition Center (Beijing Shunyi New Venue). The exhibition scale is 120,000 sqm.

We appreciate for your trust and support in the past special period. As a leading industry exhibition covering the whole building decorations and materials industry in China, B&D has always been committed to creating high-value business cooperation opportunities for both its exhibitors and visitors. We understood that as an important trade service platform, our exhibition will play a crucial role in the following recovery of the whole industry. Therefore, taking advantage of our exhibition platform to help our exhibitors to tide over difficulties and revive confidence is our undeniable responsibility and mission!

To ensure a successful exhibition for both exhibitors and visitors, we have made a series of practical and effective promotion plans, added more investment on marketing promotions. Now we are working on it and trying our best to present a perfect exhibition!

Again, thank you every exhibitors and visitors for your support and close attention! We are looking forward to meeting you in Beijing, June16-19, 2020!

Sincerely Yours!

CIEC GL events (Beijing) International Exhibition Co., Ltd.
March 10, 2020